Biography
Gina Scaramella, LICSW
Executive Director, Boston Area Rape Crisis Center

Gina Scaramella began working at the Boston Area Rape Crisis Center (BARCC) as a volunteer hotline counselor in 1989. Today, she is BARCC's executive director, overseeing the activities of Massachusetts' largest and oldest provider of services for sexual assault survivors and public education programs for the community.

Among Gina's proudest accomplishments as Executive Director are BARCC's standard-setting work with survivors and families, the agency's partnerships with other programs and organizations, and the role BARCC plays as a social change agent in the community. She has worked nationally as an expert with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and is a member of a statewide team – EMPOWER - tasked with formulating Massachusetts' approach to preventing sexual violence. Gina also serves on the boards of Jane Doe, Inc., the Massachusetts Coalition of Sexual and Domestic Violence Programs, and the Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner Program.

Gina earned her Master of Social Work from Boston University.
