

Survivor Speakers Bureau Application

The purpose of the BARCC Survivor Speakers Bureau (SSB) is to help survivors of sexual violence tell their stories as a tool for creating social change. Please review the Speaker Guidelines before submitting your application.

Contact Information

First name: _____ Last name: _____

Gender Pronouns: he/him she/hers they/them other: _____

Age: _____

Street Address: _____ Apt/Unit/Suite # _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Day Phone: _____ Night Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Questions

1. Do you have any accommodation needs to be able to fully participate in the training (e.g., interpreters, large print materials, wheelchair-accessible space, etc)?

2. How did you learn about the BARCC Survivor Speakers Bureau?

3. People have many different reasons for wanting to join the Survivor Speakers Bureau. What are your hopes for yourself in joining the SSB?

8. Are you currently or have you in the past year been involved with BARCC in another way, including volunteering for another program or receiving BARCC services?

- If you are a current BARCC volunteer, please list what program(s) you are a part of below. In order to volunteer for both programs, we will need to be able to communicate with your volunteer coordinator; do you have any concerns about that?

Please return your completed application to volunteer@barcc.org.

Once your application is received, you will be contacted to set up a time to come in for a brief interview with the training facilitators. In order to go through the training, you will need to complete an in-person interview.