Delectable Jazz Brunch...for 25!

Even if you are not a morning person, you will love this wake-up call: Mimosa or just plain prosecco in hand, kick back and listen to guitar impresario Michael Hession over brunch in a wonderful antique home in Winchester. Choose a menu theme: Mexican, with Morning Margaritas and tamales; French, with a wild mushroom crepe tort, croissants and fresh goat cheeses; a traditional English breakfast with crisp bacon rashers, spicy breakfast sausage, with a ham and scrambled eggs, or rely on the host's repertoire that could include savory smoked mozzarella tarts, salmon scrambled eggs in a puff pastry, or French toast bread pudding. No matter what you choose, your brunch will include fresh seasonal fruits and juices, a just-out-of-the-oven sour cream coffee cake, fresh brewed coffee and cappuccino.

A Royal Evening

Our host, the Royal Sonesta, invites you to throw a dinner party fit for royalty. You and nine friends will dine in style at their award-winning restaurant, Dante. You and your guests will enjoy food that's playful yet familiar in a warm space that evokes the serenity of the Mediterranean, featuring magnificent views of the Charles River and Boston's skyline.

Not only will your dinner be extraordinary-so will your view! Dante has a little something for everyone. Whether you sample the chef's latest creation or one of his classic fresh pastas, you're sure to discover an experience you won't soon forget! Boasting distinctive cocktails, an extensive wine list, seasonal patio dining, Dante is the perfect spot to refresh your mind, restore your spirit and reinvigorate your taste buds. Then you and a guest can head upstairs where you will spend the night in one of the Sonesta's exquisite executive suites.
